

SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LEADERS

The School for Young Leaders is a project of the President of Republic of Macedonia 2009-2019, Dr. Gjorge Ivanov, primarily initiated in his first electoral program, following his idea and vision to enable the young, talented and ambitious people to upgrade and improve their skills, to develop their creativity and managerial capacities.

The School for Young Leaders of President Ivanov reflects his visionary commitment to empowering and nurturing the potential of young, talented, and ambitious individuals, both from within Macedonia and abroad

SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LEADERS

The School for Young Leaders has been a platform where the aspiring young individuals from Macedonia and abroad have gathered to engage in a transformative educational experience. By offering a comprehensive curriculum and a dynamic learning environment, the school has empowered them to become catalysts for change, capable of addressing critical challenges in their communities, regions, and beyond.

THE SCHOOL'S MISSION

The mission of the School is to stimulate the positive values of the young intellectual elite and future political, cultural and economic leaders of our country, moreover to develop their capacities to take on the challenges emerged with the global technology, international competition and cultural and religious diversities.

THE PROGRAM

The School for Young Leaders offers a comprehensive approach to leadership development. Through a combination of various educational methods, including lectures, simulations, real-life examples, illustrations, and practical exercises, as well as training sessions, the students are provided with a well-rounded understanding of leadership in different domains.

The program is designed to expose students to a diverse range of leadership practices and scenarios. By incorporating elements from these various areas, the school aims to equip participants with a skill set that can be applied in different contexts.

The School for Young Leaders offers a well-rounded leadership program that combines theory and practice. Through a variety of teaching methods and a distinguished group of lecturers and guests, students gain a comprehensive understanding of leadership and management, preparing them to excel in different leadership roles and contexts.

OUR PARTICIPANTS

Over the course of the past 14 Schools for Young Leaders, a remarkable number of approximately 550 young individuals from the country and from abroad, actively participated. These young participants had diverse academic and professional backgrounds, each possessing a unique set of skills, knowledge, and ambitions. Their common aspiration was to nurture and enhance their leadership abilities, enabling them to play a pivotal role in the positive development of their respective societies and the environments where they live and work.
